Knight Oil Tools International Announces Executive Promotions

Clark Carnes, President of Knight Oil Tools International, announced recently that Rod Warmke has been promoted to the position of Executive Vice President and Mike Foster has been named Vice President of Operations.

In his new position, Rod's primary responsibility will be to assure the execution of Knight Oil Tools International operations, sales and administrative plans to reach the company's targeted goals and expanding markets.

Rod has been with Knight Oil Tools since 1983 and has held positions as Dispatcher, Store Manager, Corporate Sales and Regional Sales Manager. His most recent position was Director of Operations—Mid-Continent Region for Rental Tool Services.

Mike Foster's primary responsibility will be to ensure the establishment of Knight Oil Tools International's policies, procedures and implementation, worldwide. Mike will also identify equipment and personnel needs for the regions and will direct all product lines in the start-up, growth and compliance of all international locations.

Mike has been with Knight Oil Tools since 2007. His most recent position was Regional Vice President—South America. Mike's prior positions include Regional Manager—Mid-Continent Region for Fishing Services.

"With the extensive knowledge and experience that both of these gentlemen bring to our organization, we look forward to continued international growth", stated Clark.

Focused on providing "zero-failure" equipment and service for 40 years, Knight Oil Tools has grown to be the largest privately held rental and fishing tools business in the oil and gas industry. Knight Oil Tools maintains an extensive inventory of high-quality products for safe, efficient and productive oilfield projects.

Operating from more than 50 locations across 11 oil-producing states and internationally, Knight Oil Tools serves all phases of a well's lifecycle from exploration to abandonment. For more information, visit www.knightoiltools.com.
